

Adam Oliver

Horse trainer and Equestrian Coach | Proprietor Universal Stables

Adam has been a County Ambassador for many years. Producing beautiful Show Horses and coaching riders of all ages.

Adams Mantra 'Our mission is to continue to develop and train horses for the Show ring and approach our sport with passion and commitment. Whilst giving our clients confidence with their horse in a fun environment.'

Universal Stables is located in the Scenic Rim Area At Coleyville In Qld. Offering training, breaking and spelling for the showing fraternity and also the Thoroughbred Industry.

Adam has produced Royal Show and Nationals Winners In ponies, Galloway's, Hacks, hunters and Opens. Recently at the 2018 Ego Senses Australian Horse & Rider Championships held at the Werribee Park National Equestrian Centre in Melbourne Adam won the Large Hunter Hack on the magnificent Bradgate Federer.

Along with the many miles on the road competing at shows from Melbourne to Mackay Adam has fulfilled many judging appointments including Adelaide Royal and the New Zealand Horse of the Year. Adam also coaches at clinics throughout Australia.

